National Native American Hall of Fame 2023 Induction Ceremony Gala

October 14, 2023, 6:00 – 9:00 PM (CST)

First Americans Museum | 659 First Americans Blvd., Oklahoma City, OK 73129

The National Native American Hall of Fame will host its 2023 Induction Ceremony Gala on October 14, 2023, when six distinguished Native Americans will be enshrined. This year's inductees include:

- Joe DeLaCruz, Quinault Indian Nation, long-serving President of the Quinault Indian Nation. Cruz built a formidable record of accomplishment, tackling such tough and long-standing issues as access to reservation lands by non-Natives, fisheries, and logging management, and perhaps most notably, the status and role of Indian tribes within the American body politics.
- Will Sampson, Muscogee Creek, film, and television actor. Sampson's most notable roles were in One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, in the TV series Vega$ as Harlon Twoleaf, and starred in the movies Fish Hawk, The Outlaw Josey Wales, Orca, and others.
- Leslie Marmon Silko, Laguna Pueblo, acclaimed and award-winning novelist and poet. Silko was a key figure in the first wave of what literary critic Kenneth Lincoln has called the Native American Renaissance.
- Mark Trahant, Shoshone-Bannock, noted author, editor and reporter, and current editor-at-large for "Indian Country Today." He was named Best Columnist by the Native American Journalists.
- Richard Trudell, Santee Sioux Nation, founder of the American Indian Lawyer Training program, and American Indian Resources Institute. Trudell has served on governing and advisory boards of numerous organizations, including the Robert F. Kennedy Memorial, the National Board of Directors of the Legal Services Corporation, and the Native American Rights Fund.
- LaNada War Jack, Shoshone-Bannock, Alcatraz Occupation co-leader, writer and long-time Native rights advocate. Pursuing enforcement of treaty obligations and Indian Rights, Dr. War Jack, was on the founding board and executive board of the Native American Rights Fund for a decade.
